TRIBUTE TO MOTHERS—Sunday, May 9, is Mothers' Day. In the spirit of the occasion, we here present in their entirety the compositions about their mothers composed by Sandra Lerner's first graders at Cornell School.

"My mother has black hair and my mother has a red dress and my mother has two feet." "My mother is a cute mother cause she dresses cute." "Dear Mother, I like you because you are nice." "I like my mother because she does most of the work around the house." "I like my mother because she is nice to me. I like my mother cause she loves me. Well, we are happy." "I like my mother dressed in a blue flower dress because she is pretty." "I love my mother and she loves me and I like her new dress. It is purple. I like her new purple dress." (This was written by a Little Lerner and she isn't a purple dress in the class.) "Mother has a wedding dress for two weeks, green and red and black. Mother is named Sally. My Mother."

WE PROMISED NOT TO TELL but nearly everyone in town already knows that Police Chief Ralph Jensen is entering a hospital Thursday for surgery on Friday. He describes his upcoming grand opening as "taking a rip out." When he told this Fern Luoma, she quipped, "Who do you think you are—Mama?" The chief will be at Merritt Hospital for chest surgery, plans to be off work about month.

FRANK AND LUCILLE KAPP staged "Lew Howell Night" at the 1089 Club Monday after Council—pink champagne, d'oeuvres, the works. During the party in his honor, Lew Howell got his start in the grocery business in 1931 at what is now the 1089 and was then Stapp's Market. Lew then worked for Frank and Lucille—now Lucille is an employee of Park and Shop, where Lew is buyer and advertising manager.

KATHLEEN KRAFT, who is both young and attractive, is a mail carrier on upper Solano Avenue.

JOE EGENBERGER brought the house down at City Council a week ago with several offhand remarks about "Rancid Transit."

ED MONTGOMERY, San Francisco newsman, really jolted the large audience who heard him speak at the Republican Assembly meeting last Wednesday.

Everything Set for Legion Navy Night on May 7

The mythical landing ship, "All Purpose," has been loaded in a mystical port by Navy Veterans of Albany Post 292, American Legion, and has set a course toward the port of Albany with docking time at 6:30 p.m. Friday, May 7, at Albany Veterans Memorial Building. There, according to the Skipper (Chairman) Albert Markstein, the cargo consisting of delectable food, exhilarating libations and mermaids, will land and Navy veterans will proceed in the duty assigned them to entertain Army, Air Corp and Marine Veterans of the post and invited guests of Post Members.

In addition to Markstein, the committee includes Lloyd Rasmussen, cochairman; Frank McLaughlin, galley chef; LeRoy Holland, rumpus room; Walter L. Holland, distinguished guests; Johnny Sterlino, entertainment; Commander James Robbins, reception; Al Drozda, prizes; new member reception, Thomas Noonan; masters of ceremonies, Gilbert Sutherland and Richard A. Ball, 10th District commander.

The Navy had expected that the entire evening would be in their charge but word comes from Commander James Robbins that the Post must convene for a business meeting to accept five recruits into the ranks of the Post, Thomas Noonan, membership chairman, will report that with the five new members the Post has reached its convention goal and the 1965 membership quota for the year.

It is expected that returns will be received from invitations sent out by Albany Post to members of Bates-Campbell Post No. 402 to drop anchor at the Albany Post by May 10 will be reported by Charles A. Lindh, Bates Campbell has surrendered its American Legion charter to the State Department and its members are free to continue their American Legion membership in any Post of their Choice by asking for a transfer.

If Albany Post can get a goodly number of the defunct Post's members it is expected that the aim of Albany being the Second Largest Post in Alameda County will be realized.

Mrs. Robert Nichols, treasurer; Mrs. Phillip Martin, financial secretary; Mrs. Earl Friesen, historian; Mrs. Oliver Ganoung, auditor; Mrs. William Dennis, delegate to council, and Mrs. Darold Acorn, parliamentarian.

Program Chairman Mrs. J. Delton Greer will introduce Albany Juvenile Officer, Police Sgt. Carl Lindh, who will present a program on protection of juveniles and show two films, "A Dangerous Stranger," which is the type shown in classrooms depicting the dangers of children being friendly with suspicious strangers. It also includes tips on how to get out of unpleasant and sometimes dangerous situations. The other film is "So You Want to Be A Smarty."

This will be the final meeting at which Mrs. Martin will preside. Historian Mrs. Nichols will report on high lights of the past year.

A VOICE FROM THE PAST OFFERS TIPS TO CITY

In June, 1937, Albert Raeburn listed for the Chamber of Commerce some of the things Albany could do to help itself survive the impending threat of El Cerrito Plaza (which opened the following year).

Raeburn advised joint promotions, including periodic sales or a shopping night. (A survey revealed that Albany people wished stores would remain open on Thursday or Friday nights.) He said these events should be gala affairs, an opportunity for family fun.

Although some sort of Albany shopping center was under consideration at that time, the advice could apply to the business areas as they exist today.

"You can compete in your own back yard, so to speak," Raeburn wrote. "You can create your own niche, your own demand and your own place."

He emphasized two points: "That you act and act now! The longer you wait the more difficult it will be to act. Whatever you do, you have to do it by joint efforts: whether it is a shopping night, a periodic sale, improving your physical appearance, adding parking. Whatever it is, your strength will lie in making these projects a joint undertaking."

1. Develop a color scheme for the outside of your buildings . . . people coming here would know that this is Albany. You might even get a color expert to help you work out the scheme.
2. Unity can also be achieved by having neon signs which have some relationship to each other. The way things look now everybody is trying to get a sign that sticks out over the sidewalk further than anyone else's.
3. You might also look into the possibility of having a canopy over the length of your shopping facility. This not only adds to the unity . . . but encourages shopping during rainy weather.
4. Landscaping can achieve wonders for you. Break up the monotony of cement sidewalks with a few plants, flowers and trees. Your parking lots, if you add them, should also have some landscaping. Landscaping "softens" the business district. It makes the business district look like a more comfortable place to shop.

Council A Go-Go

Heated Discussion on City Flag at Monday Session

Councilmen Joe Egenberger and Richard Clark were stymied Monday night in their efforts to obtain immediate council approval of a design for the new city flag and an order for 13 banners at a cost of $540.

Refusing to rally 'round the flag until they see a completed cloth sample and/or a large mock-up on paper were Councilmen Joel Parker and George Hein.

Mayor Lewis Howell served as conciliator. He congratulated Clark and Egenberger for their work on the flag project. Everyone agreed the proposed design presented Monday night looks good in its present state.

The reason for haste, it was explained, is that the state champion color guard of Albany Legion post 292 will be leading the parade at the state convention in San Diego in June and wish to carry Albany's banner.

"I'd go along with ordering one flag now for use by the color guard," Parker said, "but I don't quest for the mayor, administrative officer and other councilmen to attend a hearing in Sacramento May 12 on SB 566; a request from the operators of the city dump to change from individual like to expend funds for a pig in a poke."

Egenberger said that one flag would cost almost as much as 12 because of the cost of setting up the stencils. He had asked Council to purchase six four-by-six and six five-by-eight foot flags at a cost of $375 and a complete flag unit for the new city council chambers at a cost of $165.

Hein said he would hate to make a mistake. It was his suggestion to paint up one on a four-by-six sheet of paper and put it on the wall.

"I don't want people calling complaining about the miserable flag," Parker said. "I can't see it."

Egenberger said the citizens of Albany were asked to approve a costly city buildings project from sketches on paper and didn't have to be shown the completed buildings before they approved the issue.

Following complicated series of motions, Council adopted Parker's proposal to find out the cost of one cloth banner and to arrange to have for exhibit a banner of proportionate size on paper.

Another motion by Parker which received unanimous approval was to adopt the monochromatic rendering of the flag design as the city seal.

Other Business
In other matters Monday night, Council:

APPROVED—a request for the mayor to proclaim May 8 as Albany Little League Day, a request from the Maritime administration to assist in publicizing National Maritime Day Saturday, May 22, Sen. John Holmquist's request.

Drum major Greg deGiere and majorettes Suzie Jones and Andrea McDaniels will lead the way for the band.

Included in the parade, stressing that Little League is not only for children, will be a group from the Albany Senior Citizens and city officials who include Mayor Lewis Howell, Councilmen Joe Egenberger, George Hein, Joel Parker and Dick Clark. Also, Chief of Police Ralph Jensen, Assistant Fire Chief William Hutt, Director of Parks and Recreation Bud Rooney and Recreation Commissioners Clay Berling, chairman, Frank Graeber, Mrs. Dario Meniketti, Bill Culley and William Miller.

Mrs. Frank Alessandro, auxiliary president, will provide "extras" for this day as well as the usual snack shack items. Regular items available throughout the season are fresh popcorn, coffee, tea, hot chocolate, pastries, candy, gum, popcorn on a stick, caramel corn and hot dogs.

Proclamation A Series

On May 14, 1965, East Bay Municipal Utility District will dedicate Briones Dam and Reservoir, another step forward in the District's continuing efforts to solve the common water supply problems of the cities which lie on the east shore of San Francisco Bay.

Briones Dam will impound almost 20 billion gallons of water in the hills north of Orinda ready for use in any part of East Bay Water's 274-square-mile service area. With the dedication of Briones Dam, East Bay Water has completed the last major project in its Water Development Program, a program which will insure a plentiful supply of water for East Bay residents until the end of the Century.

The City of Albany is one of 13 cities served by the East Bay Municipal Utility District, and its citizens are direct beneficiaries of the unparalleled service and remarkably low service and tax rates of this publicly-owned water system.

So that the citizens of the City of Albany may pause and reflect with pride and gratification upon the high standards of water supply which are so much a part of their daily existence, I, Lewis M. Howell, Mayor of the City of Albany am pleased to designate the period from May 9 through May 15 as "EAST BAY WATER WEEK."

LEWIS M. HOWELL
Mayor of the City of Albany

Insurance Company Reaches Highest Volume in 55 Years

In 1964, Farmers New World Life Insurance Company reached the highest volume of life insur- ance issued in its 55-year history. R. E. Ecke, president, told stock- holders at the annual meeting.

Stockholders approved a 10 for 1 stock split recommended by the Board of Directors last January.

The company is an affiliate of Farmers Insurance Group and has been in business since 1910. Farmers Insurance Group's home offices are in Los Angeles and it has district offices in communi- ties in 25 states, including Al- bany-Berkeley area, Robert L. Nehls, district manager, 1887 So- lano Ave.

Ecke said that growth of the company has been rapid since it was acquired by Farmers Insur- ance Group. It reached the $200 million life insurance in force mark in 1957 and this figure stood at $785 million last Decem- ber 31.

GIRL SCOUTS PRACTICE FOR NATIONAL ROUNDUP

In preparation for the Senior Girl Scout Roundup in Idaho, 200 teen-aged girls assembled last weekend at Twin Canyon, near Lafayette, in Contra Costa Coun- ty. The occasion was the first practice encampment of Senior Scouts selected to represent the San Francisco Bay Area at the national event in July.

All experienced campers, the girls have been practicing in pa- rol units of eight. They set up tents, constructed tables and benches, and cooked all meals on charcoal-burning shepherd- stoves, using the same equipment they will take to the Roundup. Adult observers, headed by Mary Jane Even, Roundup Coordinator for the S.F. Bay Girl Scout coun- cil, were present to check the girls' camping techniques.

Scouts from Albany who will join 9,000 others in setting up an instant city of 6,000 multi-colored tents on the shores of Lake Pend Oreille, Idaho, include Sue Thomas, Madeline Kelly, Laura Bailey, and Patricia Nelson.

The teen-city will be in the heart of a 5,000-acre tract at the site of the former Farragut Naval Training Station. It will be in- habited from July 17-26 by Senior Girl Scouts from every state and territory of the U.S. and Girl Guides from 45 other countries.

EXCHANGE CLUB golf tour- nament and banquet will be Thursday, May 13, at Richmond Golf and Country club with Albany-El Cerrito Exchange club as hosts. Reservations may be made by writing Nibs Drive In, 5201 Wall Ave., Richmond, indi- cating whether members plan to golf only, golf and eat and how many guests each is inviting.

We believe it will constitute a substantial contribution to the general overall effectiveness of the ceremonies being planned by the San Francisco committee."

The East Bay's plans for June 26 include a colorful ceremony featuring UN dignitaries, ambassadors and top officials. The public, and their families, will be invited to attend to see, in person, those officials who run this peace-keeping body. No admission charge.

Greek Theatre on UC Campus Site for Public UN Ceremonies

Plans for a large, colorful public ceremony, scheduled for Saturday afternoon, June 26, in the Greek Theatre on the Berkeley campus, and co-sponsored by the University of California, are progressing. This was the news released this week by Dr. Florence Harris, 1056 Stannage Ave., Albany, secretary to the East Bay Committee for the United Nations 20th anniversary.

In a recent letter to Robert R. Gros, chairman, executive committee for the Commemorative Session of the United Nations in San Francisco, the East Bay group detailed some of what is in the offing:

"Ceremonies will take the form of a university convocation at which the university will grant honorary doctor's degrees to certain world leaders attending the United Nations Assembly in San Francisco. Hopefully all delegates will attend attired in official regalia, and accompanied by a capped and gowned academic procession. Whenever possible, professors will be assigned to delegates who can speak the native language of the visitor. Guests are to be announced through loud speakers upon arrival and departure, and it is hoped they may come in a caravan of open limousines. There will be addresses, band music and possibly choral singing, flags of all nations flying and other appropriate decorations."

Letters from the committee have also been sent to Dr. U. Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations and to Clark Eichelberger, vice-chairman, United Nations Association, Dr. Rarris indicated.

The University has extended an invitation to the UN

A committee of persons, including representatives from every walk of life, are working to conclude a memorial four-day celebration in San Francisco on June 27.

Fire Plug

Assistant Fire Chief William Hutt issued a warning to housewives today regarding the hazards of drying certain articles containing rubber in home dryers. He stated that many fires are being started, not only in home dryers, but also in those of commercial laundry and dry cleaning plants because of a peculiar property of some types of rubber.

It has been found that the temperature of ordinary laundry drying equipment is high enough to initiate spontaneous heating of rubber in various forms, even when preset in very small amounts.

Foam rubber as used for cushioning appears to be especially susceptible to this spontaneous heating hazard.

Although the spontaneous heating reaction is started by the heat within the dryer, it can continue even after the articles are removed from the dryer.

Chief Hutt offered the following recommendations to housewives, and to operators of commercial dryers:

1. For complete safety, do not machine dry any articles which might contain rubber. Air dry them at normal temperatures.
2. Even if something containing rubber inadvertently gets into the dryer, the danger of fire can be minimized if the load is immediately removed from the machine after drying, and the articles separated so they can cool off quickly.

The Chief asked that all dryer fires, no matter how minor the damage, be reported promptly to the Fire Department.

lions of dollars damage. Howell

Mrs. Edwin S. Howell, 4372 Wal-

Ellis-Olson Mortuary Accepted Once More By Order of Golden Rule

Harold W. and May Ellis Olson, of Ellis-Olson Mortuary, 727 San Pablo Ave., have been notified that their firm has been accepted for the 19th consecutive year as a member of the Order of the Golden Rule.

The Order of the Golden Rule is the world's largest controlled membership organization for funeral directors, having representation on five of the six continents. Membership in the Order is not lightly bestowed, nor is it automatically renewed. Each member's service, facilities and prices are investigated annually to establish beyond all doubt that he continues to be worthy of affiliation with the Order.

Special emphasis is placed on ethical standards and service to the community.

The Order of the Golden Rule is a non-profit organization working toward betterment of modern funeral service. It and its members are continually on the lookout for new and better ways to serve bereaved families, always keeping in mind that regardless of the quantity of the services rendered, the quality of each funeral service must be of the highest. The Order's members are pledged to offer services that are within the means of all families, regardless of how limited those means may be.

Members of the Order of the Golden Rule are identified by a symbol showing a knight in full armor. On his shield is inscribed the Order's motto: "Service measured not by gold... but by the Golden Rule".

First, call Ellis-Olson Mortuary.

The moment we pick up the telephone, your responsibility ends and ours begins. We will, with the help of a reliable affiliate, make all the arrangements for shipment back home... usually at far less cost to you than if you'd simply pick any funeral director at random from the telephone directory.

This is true whether you call from one, one hundred, one thousand or more miles away.

Uniform Fund Grows

Volheims Elected by Band Boosters; Lions Give $200

Albany Band Boosters elected Mr. and Mrs. Rex Volheim co-presidents and received a $200 donation to the band uniform fund from the Lions Club, at the monthly Booster meeting evening, April 19.

Albany Lions President Walter K. Sears presented outgoing Booster President Al Klose with a check for $200 from the club, and everyone in the band wishes to thank all the members of the Lions club for this wonderful gift.

This brings the band uniform fund to almost $2,300, plus $3,300 requested in the Board of Education budget. Over $6,000 altogether will be needed for all of the new uniforms.

New officers for the 1965-66 academic year, to serve with Presidents Mr. and Mrs. Volheim, were selected by unanimously accepting the report of the nominating committee. Mr. and Mrs. Al Drozda will be vice presidents for finance, membership vice president will be Mrs. Will Coring, and Mr. and Mrs. Dario Meniketti are the new vice presidents in charge of publicity.

Mrs. Charles Polivka was chosen as the treasurer, and Mrs. Toothaker is our secretary-elect. Mrs. Eldon Wolf will be chairman of the Band Concert reception, and the Orchestra Concert reception will be handled by Mrs. Westerlund.

Albany Band Boosters, operating this year under the very excellent leadership of Presidents Mr. and Mrs. Al Klose, have always been a tremendous asset and assistance to the high school music department. They have raised all the money for the new band uniforms this year.

'GARDENS OF THE WORLD' GARDEN SHOW THEME

There's something for everyone at the forthcoming 1965 California Spring Garden Show "Gardens of the World," which opened May 1 and ends May 9 at the Oakland Exposition Building. Hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

Dedicated to the 20th anniversary of the United Nations' founding in the Bay Area, the international array of garden landscapes ranges from a Polynesian Paradise Isle complete with grass hut and sheltering palms to a formal baronial English garden with marble staircase, and classical statuary.

Ranked in between visitors will find scenes representative of Europe, Asia, the South Pacific, the Near East, the West Indies, and Latin America. Some of the highlights include an Irish country scene dominated by an 11-foot Celtic cross, and a 16th century English "posting House" and courtyard which on opening weekend contained Shetland ponies.

"Gardens of the World" has been designed by landscape architect John Vogley as a salute to the countries of the United Nations. The diverse landscapes of the interior panorama are unified by a formal central mall, paved with red brick, and canopied with lines of silver-grey olive trees and tanbark oaks. Formal foun-
